

If I had Wings

If I had wings I would touch the fingertips of clouds and glide on the wind's breath.

If I had wings I would taste a chunk of the sun as hot as a peppered curry.

If I had wings I would listen to the clouds of sheep bleat that graze on the blue.

If I had wings I would breath deep and sniff the scent of raindrops.

If I had wings I would gaze at the people who cling to the earth.

If I had wings I would dream of swimming the deserts and walking the seas.

Please use the structure of Pie Corbett's poem to write your own poem titled 'If I had Wings.'

Start by keeping the text highlighted in yellow the same and begin each line of your poem with the phrase 'If I had wings I would...'

Next, use your senses highlighted in blue. If you would like a challenge you can add some additional verbs here to make your poem longer.

Then change the ending to tell us what you would touch, taste, hear, smell and see.

Remember to make your language as adventurous as possible and have fun!
