

Questions

1. Which vegetable was woken up by footsteps? Tick one.
 - Clive Carrot
 - Polly Parsnip
 - Sally Sprout
2. What type of vegetables were the only ones allowed to join the club to start with? Tick one.
 - parsnips
 - carrots
 - onions
3. Why did Clive Carrot say that sprouts were not allowed in the club? Tick one.
 - He said they were boring and not cool.
 - He said they were too green.
 - He said they were too round.
4. What did Polly Parsnip do to get into the club? Tick one.
 - She hid in the carrot crate.
 - She put a hat on.
 - She painted herself orange.
5. What did the carrots learn at the end of the story? Tick one.
 - that they shouldn't judge others
 - that the other vegetables are boring
 - that only green vegetables are fun

Questions

1. What type of vegetable was Clive? Tick one.

- a parsnip
 a carrot
 a sprout

2. Where did the carrots hold their club? Tick one?

- in the fridge
 under a table
 in a cardboard box

3. Find two words that describe how Sally felt when she wasn't allowed in the club.

1. _____
 2. _____

4. Draw a line to match the speech with the character who said it.

"What's Carrot Club?"	Billy Beetroot
"We need to teach those carrots a lesson."	Sally Sprout
"That's right, I am interesting!"	Polly Parsnip

5. Complete this sentence.

"Maybe you are as cool as _____, after all!"

people

veggies

carrots

Questions

1. How did Sally Sprout find out about Carrot Club? Tick one.

- She saw a poster advertising the club.
- She heard footsteps and followed them.
- The other vegetables told her about it.

2. How did the other veggies feel about not being allowed into Carrot Club?

3. 'That night, there was a buzz of excitement...'

In your own words, what does 'buzz of excitement' mean?

4. Draw a line to match each word with its meaning.

peered ● furious ●

shame ●

● to be very cross

● to feel bad about your behaviour

● to look at something

5. How did the carrots discover that Polly was a parsnip?

6. What do you think the message of the story is?
