

This Lie Will Kill You

This lie will kill you is a thrilling, horror, murder mystery. Last year, there was a party and at the party a boy died and nobody knows the truth about what happened to him. This story is about five teenagers that are given the chance to win a $50,000 prize and a scholarship to a college of their choice. However, none of them realise that this murder mystery dinner could be more than it seems. "Will the truth set them free or will their lies destroy them all..."

I would rate this book 10/10, because it showed lots of different aspects of the one main story through the different characters' points of views. Although, it does show some themes that would not be appropriate for children younger than 11 years old, so I would recommend it to people who are 11+. If you are a fan of the book One Of Us Is Lying this is the perfect book for you. Chelsea Pitcher (also known for Lies Like Poison) is a brilliant writer who captured the essence of (in my opinion) the perfect murder mystery.
