The fox and the ghost king

In a den under a shed in a garden lives a family of foxes. The family of foxes love to watch football. But their favourite team Leicester city keeps losing and losing. Daddy fox finds the ghost king buried under a car park.

This king who wishes only to be free, asked Daddy fox to release him, if he does he will make sure that Leicester city wins every game.

For these football loving foxes, it is a dream come true.
